ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The author gratefully acknowledge the contributions of many brothers and sisters towards the completion of this project.

Special mention is made of Nizam Khan, Akmal Hussain, Shakier Alladeen, Shafdar Mohamed, Salah Haqqi, Hassan Kari, Nasrin Siddiqui, Ayube Edun, Asraf Asgarali, Rafeek Assim, and Nicole and Majid Khan at Printing Circles, and their families and the many other brothers and sisters too numerous to mention.

I extend my sincere gratitude to my family. I thank my beloved parents for their unceasing support, my sisters and their family, my late grandparents, my uncles, aunts, and my wife's family for their encouragement and support, and particularly to my wife and children for their sacrifice, love, patience and understanding.

Above all, I am eternally grateful to Almighty ALLAH, SWT, for the accomplishment of this work. WA MAA TAWFIIQII ILLA BILLAH.

INTRODUCTION

TEACH YOURSELF ARABIC READING is a simplified text intended for use by those wishing to read the Arabic language and the QUR'AN. The teaching technique used is based primarily on AHSANUL QAWAA-ID (The Best of Methods) by Sheikh Shamsuddin Barudaawi and EASY STEPS IN QUR'AN READING by Sheikh Abdul Wahid Hamid of Muslim Education and Literary Services (MELS). Many other Arabic language texts and renowned Arabic language scholars have been also sourced in preparing the manuscript.

The book is arranged in logical Lesson Modules consisting of :

* ARABIC READING EXERCISE
* TRANSLITERATION
* TRANSLATION
* EXPLANATORY NOTES OF LESSON

We have found this system of teaching and learning extremely effective for a classroom or Madrasah environment as well as for individual self study. A recording of the individual lessons is also available on audio cassettes for those desirous of master the reading of the Arabic script through self study. However, the help of a Arabic language teacher may be useful especially with the finer points of pronunciation.

We suggest that both book and cassettes be used in an intensive course. A three hour lesson a day is recommended for those wishing to complete the course within two weeks. However, the course may be modified to suit particular age groups or less demanding time schedules.

Inspite of all the care and thoroughness we have taken to complete this text accurately we are sure it can be improved; In this regard we will be pleased to address any questions, queries or suggestions for improvement you may have regarding the contents. Please send your written suggestions to be considered for future editions of this text.

We hope, INSHAA ALLAH, that this TEXT will contribute towards the correct reading of the Glorious Qur'an and learning of the Arabic language with a view towards the understanding of message of the Qur'an and experience the joy and satisfaction of its companionship.

May Almighty Allah strengthen us with His Mercy, Blessing and Guidance, and help us to continue serving His Cause in a way pleasing and acceptable to Him. Ameen.

NOTES OF LESSON
MA-KHAARIJ AL-HURUUF - POINTS OF ARTICULATION

MAKH-RAJ The place where the SOUND of a letter originate is called the MAKH-RAJ. The Letters of the Arabic Alphabet come out of seventeen main MA-KHAARIJ. It is Waajib (compulsory) to pronounce the letters from the correct MAKH-RAJ. [MAKH-RAJ is SINGULAR, MA-KHAARIJ is PLURAL]

If any letter cannot be pronounced correctly, an earnest effort should be made to correct it If anyone recites the Holy Qur'an incorrectly and does not make a genuine effort to improve his her pronunciation, he she will be sinful. The meaning of a word may change if it is not pronounced correctly It is hoped that those who cannot master the pronunciation after trying, will be rewarded two fold for their efforts to read correctly, and for their actual recitation

ALIF

Pronounced from the 'emptiness' or hallow portion of the mouth [JAWF AL-FAM]. During the pronounciation exhaling of air occurs and, therefore, this sound depends on the air being exhaled As long as the exhaling continues, the pronounciation of the letter continues When the exhaling stops, the pronounciation also stops.

HAMZAH

Pronounced from the bottom (or back) of the throat near the chest [AQSAL HALQ].

O ALLAH, HAVE MERCY ON ME BY ENABLING ME TO AVOID SINS AS LONG AS YOU KEEP ME ALIVE, AND HAVE MERCY UPON ME LEST I CONCERN MYSELF WITH THINGS THAT ARE OF NO CONSEQUENCE TO ME.
AND VOUCHSAFE ME THE AESTHETIC SIGHT IN THINGS WHICH WILL CAUSE YOU TO BE WELL PLEASED WITH ME
O ALLAH ! ORIGINATOR OF THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH, LORD OF MAJESTY AND GLORY AND POSSESSOR OF INCOMPREHENSIBLE MIGHT !
I BESEECH YOU, O ALLAH, O BENEFICENT LORD !
IN THE NAME OF YOUR MAJESTY, AND OF THE LIGHT OF YOUR COUNTENANCE,
TO CAUSE MY HEART TO MEMORISE YOUR BOOK AS YOU HAVE TAUGHT ME,
AND GRANT ME THAT I MAY RECITE IT IN SUCH MANNER, AS WILL CAUSE YOU TO BE WELL PLEASED WITH ME.
O ALLAH ! ORIGINATOR OF THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH, LORD OF MAJESTY AND BOUNTY, AND OF MIGHT INCOMPREHENSIBLE !
I BESEECH YOU, O ALLAH, O BENEFICENT LORD !
IN THE NAME OF YOUR MAJESTY, AND OF THE LIGHT OF YOUR COUNTENANCE,
TO ILLUMINATE MY VISION WITH YOUR BOOK,
TO SET FREE MY TONGUE THEREWITH,
TO COMFORT MY HEART THEREWITH,
TO ENLIGHTEN MY MIND THEREWITH
AND TO WASH AWAY THE SINS OF MY BODY WITH IT.
FOR, INDEED THERE IS NONE EXCEPT YOU TO SUPPORT ME IN ATTAINING THE TRUTH, AND NONE BUT YOU CAN GIVE IT TO ME.
THERE IS NO STRENGTH NOR POWER SAVE IN ALLAH, THE MOST EXALTED, THE MOST GREAT.

APPENDIX II
LESSON 1
THE ARABIC ALPHABET

MA-KHAARIJ AL-HURUUF - POINTS OF ARTICULATION MAKH-RAJ The place where the SOUND of a letter originate is called the MAKH-RAJ. The Letters of the Arabic Alphabet come out of seventeen main MA-KHAARIJ. It is Waajib (compulsory) to pronounce the letters from the correct MAKH-RAJ [MAKH-RAJ is SINGULAR, MA-KHAARIJ is PLURAL]

If any letter cannot be pronounced correctly, an earnest effort should be made to correct it. If anyone recites the Holy Qur'an incorrectly and does not make a genuine effort to improve his/her pronunciation, he she will be sinful. The meaning of a word may change if it is not pronounced correctly. It is hoped that those who cannot master the pronunciation after trying, will be rewarded two fold for their efforts to read correctly, and for their actual recitation.

APPENDIX II
LESSON 2
LETTER RECOGNITION PRACTICE

MA-KHAARIJ AL-HURUUF [CONTD]

ALIF

Pronounced from the 'emptiness' or hallow portion of the mouth [JAWF AL-FAM] During the pronunciation exhaling of air occurs and, therefore, this sound depends on the air being exhaled As long as the exhaling continues, the pronunciation of the letter continues When the exhaling stops, the pronunciation also stops

HAMZAH

Pronounced from the bottom (or back) of the throat near the chest [AQSAL HALQ].

APPENDIX II
LESSON 3
RECOGNITION OF LETTERS IN VARIOUS FORMS
MA-KHAARIJ AL-HURUUF [CONTD]

BAA'

Pronounced from the moist part of the lips The sound is obtained by bringing the lips together

TAA'

Pronounced when the tip of the tongue comes in contact with the root (or gum) of the upper front Incisor teeth called the THA-NAAYA 'ULYA

THAA'

Pronounced with the tip of the tongue touching the edge of the upper front Incisor teeth called the THA-NAAYA 'ULYA. The tip of the tongue must protrude slightly to be visible from outside.

JEEM

Pronounced from the space between the middle of the tongue and the upper palate

HAA'

Pronounced from the middle of the throat [AWSATUL HALQ] KHAA' Pronounced from the front (or top) of the throat; the part nearest to the mouth [ADNAL HALQ]

DAAL

Pronounced when the tip (or front) of the tongue comes in contact with the root or gum of the upper front (Incisor) teeth called the THANAAYA 'ULYA.

DHAAL

Pronounced with the tip of the tongue (TARAFUL LISAAN) touching the middle part of the upper front (Incisor) teeth called the THANAAYA 'ULYA.

RAA'

The Makhraj of RAA' is very near the Makhraj of Nuun. The tip of the tongue, together with any one side of the tongue, while rising towards the palate, touches the gums from the Incisors to the Molars.

ZAAY

Pronounced from the tip of the tongue (TARAFUL LISAAN) and the flat portion of the Incisors (THANAAYA). A small space remain between the tip of the tongue and the Incisor teeth when this letter is pronounced. There is a whistling sound produced

SEEN

Pronounced from the tip of the tongue (TARAFUL LISAAN) and the flat portion of the Incisors (THANAAYA). A small space remain between the tip of the tongue and the Incisor teeth when this letter is pronounced There is a whistling sound produced. SHEEN Pronounced from the space between the middle of the tongue and the upper palate.

SAAD

Pronounced from the tip of the tongue (TARAFUL LISAAN) and the flat portion of the Incisors (THANAAYA). A small space remain between the tip of the tongue and the Incisor teeth when this letter is pronounced There is a whistling sound produced

DAAD

Pronounced from the left blade (or side) of the tongue and the left upper Molar teeth (AD-RAAS) It is also correct to pronounce DAAD from the right side of the tongue and the right upper Molar teeth It is reported that the Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was able to do it from both sides. And so was the case with 'Umar Ibn Al-Khattaab (RA) as well Because of the uniqueness of this sound Arabic is sometimes called "THE LANGUAGE OF DAAD".

TAA'

Pronounced when the tip (or front) of the tongue comes in contact with the root or gum of the upper front Incisor teeth called the THANAAYA 'ULYA.

ZAA'

Pronounced with the tip of the tongue touching the root or gum of the upper front Incisor teeth called the THANAAYA 'ULYA

'AYN

Pronounced from the middle of the throat (AWSATUL HALQ)

GHAYN

Pronounced from the front (or top) of the throat; the part nearest to the mouth called ADNAL HALQ

FAA'

Pronounced when the inner portion of the lower lip comes in contact with the edge of the upper front teeth (THANAAYA 'ULYA).

QAAF

Pronounced from the back of the tongue and the upper palate infront of the Uvula. (The Uvula is the pendant, fleshy lobe in the middle of the posterior border of the soft palate)

KAAF

Pronounced from the back of the tongue and the soft palate, infront of the Makhraj of QAAF

LAAM

Pronounced when the tip of the tongue, together with any one side of the tongue, while rising towards the palate, touches the gums from the upper front Incisor teeth to the first Pre-Molars (DHAWAA-HIK)

MEEM

Pronounced by bringing the lip together, but not as strong as the Makhraj of BAA' MEEM is pronounced from the dry part of the lips, while BAA' is pronounced from the moist part of the lips.

NUUN

The Makhraj of NUUN is similar to that of LAAM The difference is that the tongue will only touch the upper front Incisors (THANAAYA 'ULYA), the lateral Incisors (RUBAA'II), and the Canines (ANYAAB), but will not touch the first Pre-Molars (DHAWAA-HIK).

HAA'

Pronounced from the bottom (or back) of the throat near the chest (AQSAL HALQ).

WAAW (LETTER OF MADD)

Pronounced from the 'emptiness' or hallow portion of the mouth (JAWF AL-FAM) During the pronunciation exhaling of air occurs and, therefore, this sound depends on the air being exhaled As long as the exhaling continues, the sound continues. When the exhaling stops, the pronunciation also stops.

WAAW (WITHOUT MADD)

Pronounced from between the lips. The two lips project forward during the pronunciation.

YAA' (LETTER OF MADD)

Same as ALIF and WAAW (with Madd)

YAA' (WITHOUT MADD)

Pronounced from the space between the middle of the tongue and the upper palate

APPENDIX II
LESSON 5
THE VOWEL 'A' - THE FAT-HAH

There are three short and three long vowels in Arabic The three short vowels are

FAT-HAH
KASRAH
DAMMAH

This lesson deals with the first short vowel, the Fat-hah. LESSON 6 and LESSON 7 introduce the KASRAH and DAMMAH respectively, while the Long Vowels are dealt with in later lessons The Fat-hah is represented by a stroke above the letter. It is pronounced like the letter "a" with variations (in sound) depending on the letter

This lesson is divided into two parts Lines 1-4 have the letters of the alphabet written with the vowel Fat-hah Lines 5-8 have various combinations of these letters forming three-letter words (verbs).

READING EXERCISE

There are different methods of reading the Arabic. We recommend the following method Read the letter, then read the vowel; then call the sound produced by that combination The beginning sound of the letter is added to the vowel sound to form the syllable In the case of a word, repeat this process for each letter until the word is completed. For example, line #1 .

ALIF	FAT-HAH	"A"
BAA'	FAT-HAH	"BA"
TAA'	FAT-HAH	"TA"
THAA'	FAT-HAH	"THA"
JEEM	FAT-HAH	"JA"
HAA'	FAT-HAH	"HA"
KHAA'	FAT-HAH	"KHA"
DAAL	FAT-HAH	"DA"

To read a word, let us look at line #5 (Starting with the word AMARA)

ALIF FAT HAH "A", MEEM FAT-HAH "MA", RAA' FAT-HAH "RA", "AMARA"

BAA' FAT-HAH "BA", LAAM FAT-HAH "LA", GHAYN FAT-HAH "GHA", "BALAGHA"

THAA' FAT-HAH "THA", MEEM FAT-HAH "MA", RAA' FAT-HAH "RA", "THAMARA".

JEEM FAT-HAH "JA", MEEM FAT-HAH "MA", 'AYN FAT-HAH "'A", "JAMA'A".

In a similar manner the entire lesson is read By using the AUDIO CASSETTE / VIDEO CASSETTE of this Book, the learning process becomes very simple and enjoyable. JUST FOLLOW THE TAPE.

APPENDIX II
LESSON 6
THE VOWEL 'I' - THE KASRAH

This Lesson introduces the second of the three short vowels, the KASRAH. The KASRAH is represented by a stroke placed below the letter. It is pronounced like the letter "I" as in the word "PIN". With the ALIF and the HAMZAH only the vowel "I" is pronounced.

READING METHOD

Read the letter; then read the vowel; then call the sound produced by that combination The beginning sound of the letter is added to the vowel sound to form the syllable. In the case of a word, repeat this process for each letter until the word is completed. For example, line #1 :

ALIF	KAS-RAH	"I"
BAA'	KAS-RAH	"BI"
TAA'	KAS-RAH	"TI"
THAA'	KAS-RAH	"THI"
JEEM	KAS-RAH	"JI"
HAA'	KAS-RAH	"HI"
KHAA'	KAS-RAH	"KHI"
DAAL	KAS-RAH	"DI"

To read a word, let us look at line #5 (Starting with the word A-DHI-NA)

ALIF FAT-HAH "A", DHAAL KAS-RAH "DHI", NUUN FAT-HAH "NA", "A-DHI-NA"

BAA' FAT-HAH "BA", QAAF KAS-RAH "QI", YAA FAT-HAH "YA", "BAQIYA".

HAA FAT-HAH "HA", MEEM KAS-RAH "MI", DAAL FAT-HAH "DA", "HAMIDA"

KHAA FAT-HAH "KHA", SHEEN KAS-RAH "SHI", YAA FAT-HAH "YA", "KHA-SHI-YA"

APPENDIX II
LESSON 7
THE VOWEL 'U' - THE DAMMAH

This Lesson introduces the third of the three short vowels, the DAMMAH. The DAMMAH is represented by a hook written above the letter. It is pronounced like the letter "U" as in the word "PULL" With the ALIF and the HAMZAH only the vowel "U" is pronounced.

READING METHOD
Read the letter, then read the vowel, then call the sound produced by that combination The beginning sound of the letter is added to the vowel sound to form the syllable In the case of a word, repeat this process for each letter until the word is completed. For example, line #1.

ALIF	DAMMAH	"U [PRONOUNCED "OU"]
BAA'	DAMMAH	"BU"
TAA'	DAMMAH	"TU
THAA'	DAMMAH	"THU"
JEEM	DAMMAH	"JU"
HAA'	DAMMAH	"HU"
KHAA'	DAMMAH	"KHU"
DAAL	DAMMAH	"DU"

To read a word, let us look at line #5 (Starting with the word JU-'I-LA)

JEEM DAMMAH "JU", 'AYN KAS-RAH "'I", LAAM FAT-HAH "LA", "JU-'I-LA".

KHAA' DAMMAH "KHU", LAAM KAS-RAH "LI", QAAF FAT-HAH "QA", "KHULIQA"

DHAAL DAMMAH "DHU" KAAF KAS-RAH "KI" RAA FAT-HAH "RA", "DHU-KI-RA".

SEEN DAMMAH "SU", HAMZAH KAS-RAH "I", LAAM FAT-HAH "LA", "SU-I-LA"

APPENDIX II
LESSON 8
PRACTICE WITH SHORT VOWELS

Refer to LESSONS 3 & 4 if you have difficulty in recognizing individual letters.

Master this page thoroughly before proceeding.
Try reading against the clock If you can read the entire page in under three minutes you are doing quite well. All the words in this lesson (and in the entire book) are taken from the Holy Qur'an. We recommend that you memorise the meanings of the words as well.

APPENDIX II
LESSON 9
TANWIIN - ADDING AN 'N' SOUND - FAT-HA-TAAN

Tanwiin, or Nunation in English, means adding an 'N' sound on any of the three short vowels FATHAH 'A', or KASRAH 'I', or DAMMAH 'U'.

The short vowels are written twice and so the respective tanwiin are called .

FAT-HA-TAAN
KASRATAAN
DAMMATAAN

Tanwiin occurs only at the end of a word and often indicates indefiniteness. It never occurs in the same word which has the Definite Article 'AL'.

The extra stroke above the vowel FATHAH 'A' represents the 'N'

With the FATHATAAN, an Alif is written but not pronounced when the 'AN' sound is pronounced.
No Alif is written after Tanwiin with the TAA MARBUUTAH (or Closed Taa) See line 9 No Alif is written after the Hamzah with FATHATAAN which is preceded by a long vowel. For example:

NI-SAA-AN.

APPENDIX II
LESSON 12
THE SUKUUN

The SUKUUN is written as a semi-circle or small circle above a letter.
The SUKUUN joins, it joins in pronunciation the letter above which it occurs to the previous letter and vowel - thus forming one syllable
SUKUUN literally means silent: that is, a letter with a SUKUUN does not have a vowel sound of its own.

A letter with a SUKUUN is called a SAAKIN LETTER, for example : NUUN SAAKIN, MEEM SAAKIN, etc.

APPENDIX II
LESSON 15
THE SHADDAH

The SHADDAH (meaning 'strengthening') is written as a small (w) sign placed above a letter.
The SHADDAH joins and doubles:
1. It joins in pronunciation the letter above which it occurs to the preceding letter and vowel.
2. The letter with the SHADDAH on it is then repeated and pronounced with its own vowel. For example:

RAB-BA
IN-NA
THUM-MA

The effect of the SHADDAH is to place a strong emphasis on the letter it doubles. A letter with a SHADDAH on it is called a MUSHADDADAH LETTER, for example : NUUN MUSHADDADAH, MEEM MUSHADDADAH, etc.

APPENDIX II
LESSON 24
THE LONG MADDAH

The word 'MADDAH' in Arabic means to lengthen or stretch.
MADDAH is represented by a long stroke or curve above a letter.
When a MADDAH is written above a letter, then the vowel it affects must be lengthened to at least four times its normal length.
For example :

BA (short)
BAA (long)
BAAAA (very long - MADDAH)

BI (short)
BII (long)
BIIII (very long - MADDAH)

BU (short)
BUU (long)
BUUUU (very long - MADDAH)

APPENDIX II
LESSON 35
STOPS AT THE END OF VERSES

When a stop is made at the end of a verse or Ayah, as a general rule, the last vowel is not pronounced. It is changed to a SUKUUN and pronounced as such. For example, line 3 :

QUL-HUWAL-LAA-HU AHAD

The last word is read 'AHAD' and not 'AHADUN'. The DAMMATAAN at the end of the word is changed to a SUKUUN and pronounced accordingly.

When an Alif or Alif Maqsuurah (i.e. a Broken Alif written as a YAA' without Dots) occurs after a letter with FAT-HATAAN, the 'N' sound of the Tanwiin is left out and the 'A' sound is lengthened.

For example, line 4 :

The word is pronounced AL-FAA-FAA and not AL-FAA-FAN.

The TAA MARBUUTAH (Closed Taa') at the end of a verse is read as an 'H' if the vowel that goes with it is not pronounced.
For example, line 7 :

The word is pronounced MIN-HUM TU-QAAH and not MIN-HUM TU-QAATAN. Secondly, DHUR-RII-YA-TAN TAY-YI-BAH and not TAY-YI-BATAN.

APPENDIX II
LESSON 36
RULES FOR STOPPING

The end of an Ayah or verse is indicated by writing a small circle. Different letters or words are placed above the circle to indicate the nature of the stop; whether it is a compulsory stop, or recommended stop, or preferable to read on, and so on.
As a general rule, IF IN DOUBT, STOP.

Some of the main Stops are :

WAQF LAAZIM : Compulsory Stop. If a stop is not made here the meaning gets distorted. Abbreviation for this stop is the letter MEEM.

WAQF MUTLAQ : Recommended Stop. It is good to stop here and to start reading from the next word. This stop indicates the end of a sentence but not the end of an argument.
It is represented by the letter

TAA'. WAQF JAA-IZ : Permissible Stop. It is permissible and preferable to stop here but Continuation is also allowed. This Stop is denoted by the letter JEEM.

WAQF MUJAWWAZ : Both a Stop and Continuation are permitted, but Continuation is preferred. This Stop is represented by the letter ZAAY.

WAQF MURAKH-KHAS : If a verse is long, a Stop in the middle is allowed. But since the subject matter is continuous, Continuation is preferred. The reading should start from a few words before the place of stopping. Abbreviation for this Stop is the letter SAAD.

WAQF MU'AANAQAH : This Stop is also called WAQF MURAAQABAH. Mu'aanaqah means embracing. This signifies that a word or expression so marked can be construed as going either with the words or expression preceding it or with those following it. When there are two Stops close to each other, a stop should not be made at both places. If a Stop is made at one mark, another Stop at the next mark becomes prohibited, because the meaning may be incomplete or distorted. This Stop is represented by three dots written in a triangular shape or by the letters MEEM-'AYN.

LAA WAQFA ALAYHI : This means "No Stop on this." Here a Stop is not permitted because it is likely to distort the meaning. Therefore "LAA" (LAAM ALIF) , meaning "NO", is written. One should not make a Voluntary Stop here. If a Forced Stop is made, the Initiation or Continuation should be made from a preceding word. If this Stop is at the end of a verse, Initiation or Continuation from the next verse is permissible. Abbreviation for this Stop is "LAA" or "LAAM-ALIF".
